

FERGUSON'S

Military Watches

Finest assortment in this city at FERGUSON'S Franklin Square WHERE ALL CARS STOP

Spend Our Magazine Money at Home

Don't take a chance of being swindled by trusting your subscription money with a stranger, no matter how honest and smooth he may appear. Deal with an agent you know, who lives in your own community, pays taxes and helps support the local institutions. Remember, I guarantee to meet or beat the rates on any magazine or clubbing offer quoted by any responsible agent, agent or publisher.

I represent the publishers of every publication in the United States and foreign countries.

JOHN J. SHEA

Magazine Specialist UNION SQUARE Telephone

PETER VET STEEG

Successor to F. J. Lattin, 27 Lafayette St. Phone 780. Florist and Landscaper. Wedding Decorations. Funerals. Bulbs. Ferns and Decorative Plants. Nursery stock from Bobbink & Atkins, Rutherford, N. J.

Boston Cafe

41 BROADWAY Under New Management

Formerly the Saratoga Restaurant. Is being managed by the former manager of the Minerva Cafe, in Boston. Same service will be given in the Boston Cafe of Norwich. It may be had in the Minerva or other equal places in Boston.

NICK L. KONTENES, Prop.

French-American Fur Co.

Tel. 1301-4 Room 106 Thayer Bldg.

FUR

REPAIRED AND REMODELED

High Class Work All Furs Remodeled All Work Guaranteed Store Free FUR COLLAR AND CUFFS Made to Order

H. T. YURMAN, Proprietor

COURSE IN PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

The New Haven Visiting Nurse Association offers a course in Public Health Nursing, beginning November first.

For particulars apply to MISS MARY GRACE HILLS, Supt., 200 Orange Street, New Haven, Conn.

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired. Violins sold on easy terms.

For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

CUT FLOWERS AND FUNERAL WORK

Maplewood Nursery Co. T. H. Peabody. Tel. 986.

City of Norwich Water Works

Board of Water Commissioners, Norwich, Conn., Oct. 1, 1917.

Water Rates for the quarter ending September 30th, 1917, are due and payable at the office October 1, 1917.

Office open from 8.30 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Additions will be made to all bills remaining unpaid after October 20, 1917.

CHARLES W. BURTON, Cashier.

NORWICH BULLETIN

Norwich, Saturday, Oct. 20, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.31 this evening.

St. John of Kent is commemorated in the church calendar today.

So much cloudy weather is proving depressing for the sick and shut-ins.

Last call on water bills, today—adv.

There was a rehearsal of F. F. of the Toy Shop Friday evening at Slater Hall.

The meeting of the Connecticut D. A. R. is to be held at Naugatuck on Friday.

The forty hours' devotion begins Sunday at St. Joseph's Polish church, Norwich.

The passing of 1917 is indicated by the fact that today is the 23rd day of the year.

Additions will be made to all water bills remaining unpaid after today—adv.

As a result of recent rains, dead leaves are falling from the shade trees in showers.

A department in the Otis Library is devoted to a collection of valuable pamphlets on the war.

Second Liberty Loan Sunday will be observed at the Episcopal church with a patriotic sermon—adv.

About 2,500 yards of gauze for hospital supplies was received at the Red Cross rooms in the Thayer building Friday.

The United States Geological survey, department of the interior, has published a valuable report on the Granites of Connecticut.

Dance tonight at Maenewor Hall, Taftville, given by A. P. G. W. L. U. 128—adv.

A number of prominent Norwich men plan to spend the Christmas Monday evening at arousing enthusiasm over Liberty bond buying.

A fine, wide granolithic walk has been completed along the W. H. Allen property on Church street, next to the Second church parsonage.

The prayer meeting held at the Central Baptist church Thursday evening was what is the Church's Task in the Hour of World Need.

Temperatures as high as 66 degrees were recorded yesterday. Weather is far too mild to suit merchants who have winter stocks to sell.

There will be no excuse if you do not pay your water bill today. Water of the city open continuously from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.—adv.

James B. Lord has made shipments from Lord's Hill of Shropshire rams to East Greenwich, R. I., Mansfield Depot and Oxford.

The planet Saturn, which was morning star until October 17, is ascending and morning star and will so continue until the close of the year.

Friday evening a meeting of Second Church Camp Fire Girls of the Second Church of Norwich was held at the home of Miss Esther Hansen, 225 South Thayer street.

Rev. Frank S. Robbins, pastor of the Lynday Baptist church, is to preach at the Second church of Norwich, tomorrow (Sunday) in exchange with the regular supply.

The Gods of the Passing Day—Sermon on the First Communion, Sunday evening service at the Central Baptist church. All are invited—adv.

Considerable finished work was returned to Mrs. John D. Hall, at the room of the Women's League Friday. Mrs. Hall is expecting to forward a box of army knitted articles soon.

William Lyman, former second truck operator at the Niagara Falls, was drafted at Troy, N. Y., and has left the village, Joseph Mariani of Rochester, has taken charge of that truck at the tower.

A report of D. A. R. war relief service shows that the Niagara Falls, N. Y., state have sent 416 sets of knitted garments to the men of the battleship Connecticut, as well as 12 miscellaneous garments, and 13 comfort kits.

Attorney Andrew B. Davies occupied the bench in the city court Thursday morning on account of the absence of Judge J. H. Barnes and Deputy Judge H. H. Pettit. The latter, with Mrs. Pettit, has been on a trip to Washington.

The Gods of the Passing Day—Sermon on the First Communion, Sunday evening service at the Central Baptist church. All are invited—adv.

The date of the state suffrage convention has been changed. Instead of being held on November 15 and 16 as first announced, it will open Nov. 7 and be continued over the following day. The sessions will be held in Hartford.

A Norwich boy, Charles Paddock Jones, of Washington street, has received the appointment as assistant teacher of military law at the School of Aeronautics at Princeton university and has been at work on his new duties for the last fortnight.

Rev. William A. Keefe of St. John's church, Plainfield, president of the Connecticut Alumni association of the American college of Louvain, Belgium, presided at the reunion held Wednesday evening in the Allen house, Hartford, by the Connecticut alumni.

It is hoped at Hartford that the blanks for registration of motor vehicles can be distributed by mail before the first of November, as after that date it will cost three cents for each registration blank and a stamp which will make an additional mailing expense of about $800.

OBITUARY.

David Otis Baker.

David Otis Baker died in Middletown Tuesday and his funeral will be held this (Saturday) afternoon. Rev. F. A. M. Brown of the Benedict Monastery church will officiate at the grave in the Fair Haven union cemetery. Mr. Baker was well known in the city for his directorial work of the Price & Lee company. He survived by a son, Gilbert E. Baker, of Philadelphia, and a daughter, Gertrude, wife of Judge Alfred Coit of New London.

Cigarmakers Held Dance.

The Cigarmakers' Union No. 407, held a successful dance in Pulaski hall Friday evening at which there were a large number present. An attractive dance program of sixteen numbers was rendered by Swann's orchestra.

Germany would leave Poland perfectly free—to do anything Germany might demand.

PERSONALS

Mrs. E. P. Robbins of Oak Park Ill. is visiting her uncle, Fred N. Clark of Geer avenue.

Capt. Charles T. Potter has returned to his home in Norwich after a short stay at his parents' bungalow.

John H. Cunningham of the naval reserve force at Newport spent the week end at his home on Otis street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Klinger attended the dairy show at Springfield this week, making the trip by automobile.

Friends will be pleased to know that Mrs. Howard O. Smith of 380 West Main street, who underwent an operation recently, is slightly better.

Compensation Commissioner James J. Donohue was in Waterbury Thursday hearing cases for Compensation Commissioner F. H. Williams.

New Haven papers note that Rev. Father James J. Smith, pastor of St. Francis church, formerly of Norwich, who was to Saratoga, recently for the benefit of his health, is reported to have gained considerably in consequence of the change. He expects to be home by Sunday.

It is expected that a thousand men, women and children will participate in the big Liberty Day parade to be held here next Wednesday, Liberty Day. Col. Charles W. Gale has been appointed parade marshal and invitation to parade has been sent to every organization in the city and town to take part in the procession.

The parade has been planned by the Liberty loan committee in accordance with the proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson and Governor Marcus H. Holcomb. The procession will start from Union Square promptly at 2.15 o'clock and the line of march will be as follows:

Union square to Main street and to the Margaretta church, then through Main street to Washington street and then back to Union square.

Patriotic Exercises Follow.

Immediately after the parade patriotic exercises will be held at Union Square, or in the town hall if the afternoon should be stormy. Brief addresses will be made by Mayor Allyn L. Brown and by a patriotic official, and music will be furnished by Tubbs' band, and probably by the Italian band.

It is hoped that every organization in the city will be represented in the parade, and that a large number of people will be present to witness the parade, so that a place in the line may be assigned to them.

If the Italian band takes part in the program they will furnish music without expense to the committee in charge. One of the band officials is quoted as saying a Friday that the band will gladly offer its services free of charge out of patriotism for their country.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Frisbie and Mrs. George C. Preston are taking a motor trip over the Mohawk trail.

Mrs. Babcock of Stonington was a guest the first of the week of Miss Caroline T. Gilman of Washington street.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Kelley of Portland, Me., are visiting Mrs. Kelley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Robbins, of Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

BIG LIBERTY DAY PARADE

A Thousand Men, Women and Children Expected to March Next Wednesday—Every Organization in the City Asked to Take Part—Col. Charles W. Gale Made Parade Marshal.

It is expected that a thousand men, women and children will participate in the big Liberty Day parade to be held here next Wednesday, Liberty Day. Col. Charles W. Gale has been appointed parade marshal and invitation to parade has been sent to every organization in the city and town to take part in the procession.

The parade has been planned by the Liberty loan committee in accordance with the proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson and Governor Marcus H. Holcomb. The procession will start from Union Square promptly at 2.15 o'clock and the line of march will be as follows:

Union square to Main street and to the Margaretta church, then through Main street to Washington street and then back to Union square.

Patriotic Exercises Follow.

Immediately after the parade patriotic exercises will be held at Union Square, or in the town hall if the afternoon should be stormy. Brief addresses will be made by Mayor Allyn L. Brown and by a patriotic official, and music will be furnished by Tubbs' band, and probably by the Italian band.

It is hoped that every organization in the city will be represented in the parade, and that a large number of people will be present to witness the parade, so that a place in the line may be assigned to them.

If the Italian band takes part in the program they will furnish music without expense to the committee in charge. One of the band officials is quoted as saying a Friday that the band will gladly offer its services free of charge out of patriotism for their country.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Frisbie and Mrs. George C. Preston are taking a motor trip over the Mohawk trail.

Mrs. Babcock of Stonington was a guest the first of the week of Miss Caroline T. Gilman of Washington street.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Kelley of Portland, Me., are visiting Mrs. Kelley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Robbins, of Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss C. T. Gilman returned Friday from a few days' automobile trip through the Berkshires with Mrs. George D. Coit.

Miss K. A. Rudd of Woodside is passing several weeks in Binghamton, N. Y., with her sisters, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allen North.

Tracy Rudd has returned to Boston after a few days' visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rudd. While there he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Rudd of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Broadway have returned after passing a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. George D